

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, as Labor Day approaches it is well to remember this observance is dedicated to all who labor...whether it be with our hands in the shop or field...or with our minds in the office; and

WHEREAS, this special day was established to honor the dignity of labor and its contributions to human progress and the welfare of our nation; and

WHEREAS, it is well to pause from our work on this day, to enjoy the many benefits we have derived from the fruits of these labors:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Monday, September 2nd, 1968, as-- in South Dakota, and urge all our citizens to dedicate this day to the free enterprise system which has made this nation the richest and most successful in all history.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 23rd day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-eight.

NILS A. BOE, GOVERNOR
